

JOB DESCRIPTION AND PERSON SPECIFICATION

Job Title: Hub Facilitator for National Professional Qualification: Early Years Leadership	Contract: One round of programme delivery – 18 months
Payment to school: £500 per day/ or equivalent - (Single Facilitator) £250 per day/or equivalent – (2 facilitators - £500 in total £250 per facilitator)	Time commitment: Time commitment is up to 10 days across the programme including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Compulsory attendance at shared planning meetings with a co-facilitator, facilitator on the opposite phase, or member of the Hub central team prior to each session to interrogate and contextualise the materials to your participants’ needs • 7 days or equivalent face-to-face and online programme delivery (including any individual planning time), involving: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - 4 x 2-hour sessions (online or face-to-face) - 3 x 7-hour sessions (face-to-face) • NPQ welcome event attendance (unpaid) • ½ day of compulsory training (remote) from our NPQ lead provider (unpaid) • Up to 2 days of Hub facilitator development (0.5-day Planning, Induction and Accreditation session following application, plus 0.5-day review meeting mid-way through the programme).

Overall Purpose of Role:

To act as Hub facilitator for the National Professional Qualification: Early Years Leadership for Exchange Teaching Hub.

1. To ensure the high quality and fidelity to UCL NPQ programme materials through expert delivery, quality assurance and support for other Hub facilitators
2. To ensure high quality outcomes for all participants.
3. To act as an ambassador for Exchange Teaching Hub.

Main Responsibilities:

- Act as Hub facilitator for NPQEYL, including online facilitation and face to face sessions
- Adapt and deliver training materials to meet the needs of participants and their context
- Liaise closely with other programme facilitators and the Hub central team to support effective delivery
- Develop and maintain positive relationships with participants to ensure maximum participation and completion of programmes
- Be fully prepared for the sessions, planning carefully, arriving promptly, managing the time, and ensuring a high-quality learning experience for all participants
- Be prepared to stand in for other Hub facilitators in the event of unplanned absence
- Work collaboratively with a co-facilitator where required
- Offer and receive developmental feedback on facilitation knowledge, skills and competencies as featured in the Facilitator Competency Framework
- Feedback on and input into programme design and resources
- Work in partnership with the Hub NPQ lead and lead provider in the quality assurance of the programme
- Act as an advocate for the Exchange Teaching Hub and the programmes on offer

General

1. You will be aware of and comply with policies and procedures relating to child protection, inclusion, health, safety and security, confidentiality, and data protection, reporting all concerns to an appropriate person without delay.
2. You will participate in training and other learning activities and performance development as required.
3. You will ensure you carry out your role in a way that demands high standards whilst supporting inclusion and welcoming diverse thinking.
4. You will ensure strict confidentiality in all areas of work.
5. You will work and process personal and sensitive information in accordance with the Data Protection Act 2018 and the UK General Data Protection Regulations (UK GDPR).
6. You will ensure work is conducted in a way that protects the safety and security of information (e.g., strong passwords, reporting breaches, securing paper records, securely disposing of records).
7. You will understand and comply with the statutory guidance regarding safeguarding of children, always ensuring the safeguarding and promotion of children's welfare, reporting any concerns to the Designated Safeguarding Officer at once.
8. You will always comply with the Hub's policies and procedures.
9. You will undertake other reasonable duties (with competence and experience) as requested, in accordance with the changing needs of the organisation.

Knowledge, Skills and Experience

Essential

- At least three years' Early Years leadership experience, ideally around leading the development of staff and with leadership relevant to NPQEYL
- An EYs qualification at Level 3 or above (or the equivalent)
- A track record in an Early Years leadership role of upholding ambitious educational standards which prepare pupils from all backgrounds for their next phase of education and life
- Has secured a commitment from leadership team and governors to support them in undertaking this role and to give the time required to do this effectively
- Knowledge and a good understanding of the NPQ Frameworks up to and including the level of NPQEYL and their foundation in evidence-based practice
- Has experience of face-to-face and online facilitation of professional development
- Knowledge and application of the DfE Standard for Teachers' Professional Development
- An ability to employ a variety of facilitation techniques, adapting the approach in accordance with the needs of the group and to ensure maximum engagement
- Knowledge and understanding of the current education sector and the challenges faced by teachers and school leaders at all levels, and in your local context with a focus on improving pupil outcomes

Desirable

- Experience of working outside own schools and/or in partnership with other schools
- Knowledge of key research and evidence in pedagogy and leadership
- Experience in facilitation of blended learning in a range of professional development contexts
- Evidence of training and relevant qualifications in educational and school leadership and management
- Excellent communication and IT skills, including video conferencing software
- Ideally, experience of working outside own schools and/or in partnership with other schools
- Ideally, has undertaken an NPQ successfully

Behaviours and qualities

- Be punctual and reliable, including the ability to work flexibly and to meet deadlines
- Commitment to professional development, including the giving and receiving of feedback and attendance at the Hub professional development sessions for facilitators
- Demonstrate credibility whilst also acting with authenticity and humility
- Ability to secure trusting and supportive relationships with NPQ participants and the Hub's team
- High quality, open and reflective communication skills, including explanations, listening, and questioning
- Ability to listen deeply and with integrity (to hear different viewpoints without judging them)
- Skilled at facilitating groups, using a range of processes to secure full engagement and learning
- Able to deconstruct learning – the ability to help the group make sense of the learning process at a meta-level.
- Reflection – the ability to reflect alone and with the group on individual and group behaviours, and on insights gained in the process about content, learning and process
- Commitment to high standards of teaching, school leadership and educational excellence
- Commitment to equality of opportunity and inclusion
- Ability to work efficiently and maintain high professional standards
- Self-aware about own professional bias and sensitive to colleagues' varying contexts, drawing on research evidence as a touchstone
- Able to analyse, summarise and synthesise discussion.

Contacts and Relationships:

In- school – in regular contact with Early Years teachers on the programme

External – in regular contact with members of staff at the Teaching School Hub and UCL

Note:

This job description is provided for guidance only and does not form part of the contract of employment.

The post holder will be subject to an enhanced DBS check and barred list check.